Briefs.

The Second Ward have under way, to present in the near future, the play of Queen's Evidence.

Such is the severe frost that "pip, pop, crash, smash," are the sounds to be heard in the stores where soda water is shelved.

The Broom Hotel is well filled with guests at present. This hotel seems to be doing a rushing business under the judicious management of Judge Gloubons.

A PETITION is being circulated for signatures asking the legislative body now in session, to prohibit the shooting of quail from September 15th to December 1st.

SCARLET FEVER reports are to the effect that only one case exists in the city, namely, at the house of W. W.
Fife, on Spring Street, between First and Second.

A WALKING cane, made by Robert Taylor, a former inmate of the county jail, is to be raffled for. The cane is made of horse hair, and is a clever piece of workmanship.

MR. THOMAS EMMETT, Sr., one of Ogden's oldest residents, informs us that the severity of the present winter exceeds any that have passed away during the last quarter of a century.

It is now almost certain that the Second Ward Dramatic Association will repeat their performance of the Tales of La Fontaine, in the Fifth Ward, after some few preliminaries are settled.

THE POOR fellow, Frank Graham, who had his foot severely injured by a shot accident on Christmas, has been assisted by his fellow-workmen in a very liberal manner, something like $100 or $150 having been generously subscribed to him.

AT COLLINGTON, early on Tuesday morning, four men were frost-bitten while shoveling snow on the Utah & Northern. They are doing well we are told. One of the unfortunates had to be left behind, but nothing very serious is anticipated to result from that fact.

BICYCLE RIDERS don't find their favorite pastime as pleasant just now.
We noticed an aspirant to cycle fame yesterday came down a "cropper" on three occasions, when he no doubt considered it best to propel his iron horse home, he, himself, "padding the hoof."

Mrs. MORRIS JONES, an old resident of Ogden, who has been slightly demented for some time past, is causing the officers some trouble. She appears to be dissatisfied with the Junction City, and imagines she ought to be assisted to leave. She does not appear to be particular whether she goes east or west, or to have any preference for any particular place.

Funeral Services.

At the deceased's residence, on Third street, yesterday afternoon, the funeral services over the remains of the late Dr.
P. L. Anderson were held. Bishop Winlow Farr, of the Third Ward, took charge of the services, by request of the relatives, and a large concourse of people assembled to pay their last respects. Elders D. H. Peery and Ben-S. Rich spoke of the many good qualities of the deceased, and administered words of consolation to the bereaved widow and her family of young children. After the services were concluded, a long procession of carriages, filled with mourners, headed by the Ogden Brass Band, which played tender musical strains, wended its way to the City Cemetery, where the unhabited tenement of clay was laid away for repose, to await the call of "Abraham" resounding to all the dead. After the body had been placed in the family vault, Bishop Farr, on behalf of the relatives, returned thanks to those who had so kindly given assistance in the hour of trial and need.
The deceased was 40 years of age, and has resided in this city many years.
The executors appointed by his last will are Mr. H. C. Wardleigh and Mrs. A.
Anderson. The widow and children who are the chief of the sorrowing are counselor husband and father have the sincerest condolence of a long list of friends, in which THE HERALD joins.
The lifeless body of Counselor George Hunter, of West Weber, first counselor to Bishop Hart of that place, and who died on Monday last, the 9th inst., was laid away to its final rest yesterday in the West Weber Cemetery. A large congregation met together in charge of Counselor Peterson, and paid their last respects to the deceased's memory.
Elders Jordan, C. F. Middleton, W. H.
Wright, Robert McFarlane, N. C. Mc-Farlane and Archibald McFarlane delivered sympathetic addresses to those in attendance, and words of comfort and guidance to the widow and children who are left without the paternal care, were given. The deceased was held in loving remembrance by the good people of West Weber, who generally condole with the bereaved relatives.

Railroad Items.

Reports from all points tell of the severe weather which is making conspicuous the present winter, and trains all along, both east and west, are experiencing snow blockades to a greater or less extent. The trains rarely arrive in Ogden on time on this account, hence railroad passengers and traffic generally are demoralized. The following is the table of arrivals for yesterday: Union Pacific, No. 1, seven hours late; Union Pacific, No. 3, on time; Central Pacific, three hours late; Denver & Rio Grande, three hours late.

The first train northward for several days left Ogden on Wednesday evening at 8:30, and a second gang, numbering forty men, accompanied the train to clear the road further north.

from Europe. For further information at No. 29 E. Second South Street, Emigrant Agent.

Personals.

JOHN FINN, of Chicago, is at the Broom.
C. O. GARS came down from Pocatello yesterday.
S. M. FRESHAW, Esq., is under the weather a little.
CHAS. A. TWERNHURST is a visitor to our city from the Park.
W. O. PAVEY, of the Capital City, was in Ogden yesterday.
P. O. GILBOY, advance agent for the Nellie Boyd Company, is in town.
Ma. EDWARD SCRACE, of Salt Lake City, was perambulating the Junction's streets yesterday.
Ma. S. G. GOULD, the enterprising and energetic agent of Marshall Field & Co., of Chicago, has returned from the east, and is again rustling among Ogden merchants.

Street Accidents.

A boy about 12 years of age, named John Clayton, while running after a bob-sleigh for the purpose of attaching his sled behind, not noticing a hole in the road, put his foot into it, the result being a badly sprained ankle.

Near the Broom, yesterday, another sled accident occurred. A lad of the name of Carson had hitched his sled to the back of a bob-sleigh; the horse shied, and Master Carson was thrown on his head, receiving a severe shaking.
As a boy named Canfield, aged 11 years, was riding his horse down Main Street, on Wednesday, the quadruped suddenly showed signs of viciousness, resulting in the boy being precipitated to the earth. When he picked himself up, he found that his arm was fractured.

Mining Accident.

Last night was brought to Ogden, and placed under the care of Dr. Perkins, a 15-year old boy, who had met with an accident while blasting coal at Almy, Wyoming. His name is William D. Shaw. It seems that the fall of the coal splintered his leg between the knee and the ankle so severely that the doctor was necessitated to knit the bones together by the aid of silver wire. Hopes are entertained that the leg will be saved, but nothing certain can be said on the matter.

Police Court.

On account of the absence of Judge P. H. Emerson at the Supreme Court, yesterday, the case against C. F. Bland-in, which had been appointed for hearing at 10 o'clock, was postponed until to day, when a lively time is expected, as a big grist of matters are awaiting the attention of the court and attorneys.

DIED.

HILL—On Wednesday, at 3:30 o'clock, Mary Elizabeth Hill, aged 23, the young lady, who was a daughter of Mr. Richard Hill, was much respected.

The funeral will take place to-morrow, Friday, at 2 o'clock.

Ala., writes: I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. King's New Dis-Catarrh. It gave me instant relief and entirely cured me and I have not been

I had tried other remedies with no good result. Have also used Electric Bitters
